

Lyrics by

Leontina Vukomanovic

As a composer and a songwriter she has collaborated with the most popular singers in the Balkans: Zeljko Joksimovic, Tose Proeski, Marija Serifovic, Zdravko Colic...

She has taken top prizes at all the national pop music festivals both as a performer and an author. On two occasions she was on the team of authors representing Serbia at the Eurovision Song Contest: in 2004 in Istanbul, with Zeljko Joksimovic, and in 2015 in Vienna with Bojana Stamenov.

For the Slovenian representatives in the Eurovision Song Contest - Eva Boto and Andzej Dezan she transcribed the lyrics into Serbo-Croatian.

She has published a collection of poems entitled "If Something Sounds Nice, it Doesn't Mean it's True."

For ten years she has been the director of the children's choir "Magic" and the director of one of the most significant children's music festivals in the region that carries the same name. So far she has published ten albums with or children's songs.

She was the author of "Lena's Song" that represented Serbia at JESC 2015 in Sofia where it ranked seventh.

She has won several national awards for the lasting contribution to culture.

She is also involved in applied commercial music.

Currently, she holds the position of Program Director at the Belgrade Children's Cultural Centre.
